Special Announcements

Governor Little Commission Appointments

Governor Brad Little is looking for applications from the general public and pertinent professionals and retirees for numerous statewide Boards and Commissions. Many of the positions do not relate to political party affiliation. Please consider serving and influencing policy on a board, and/or feel free to share the links below with other women around Idaho. Some of these entities meet only quarterly for a morning session, others meet once a month for 1-2 hours, and others are all by conference call. The first link lists the openings and if you are interested in anything there, you can then click on the second link to applications to complete and answer questions given there. Let's make sure we have women on our Idaho boards and commissions!

IWF- New Mexico Forum

Our New Mexico Forum invites you and your guest to four days of art, culture and beauty in America's oldest Capital. Join us in Santa Fe during our most beautiful time of the year as we celebrate our 30th Anniversary and raise funds for our philanthropic outreach, Leadership, Empowerment, and Advancement Program for Women (LEAP).

When: October 3-6, 2019

Where: The historic La Fonda Hotel, Santa Fe

Price: $695 per person, includes dine-around, (members only) and $550, per guest

These regional IWF meetings show off a region with women leaders who have created a legacy in their communities and their state. It is a great opportunity to make new friendships and see a beautiful part of the New Mexico. Plus the Air Balloon Festival is happening at the same time. IWF - Idaho President Sarah Michael hopes that you will consider attending.

We have many more dine- arounds and special events throughout the Spring, so be on the lookout for event updates and reminders.
