March 2019

Member Meeting Highlights

Twenty-five IWF members enjoyed a delighted lunch/brunch catered by Cristinia's Restaurant on Sunday, March 3, 2019, at Carol Nie's home in Sun Valley, Idaho. Thank you. Carol. It was a relaxing get together of good conversation and sharing. Several of us attended Peggy Goldwyn's Family of Woman Film Festival at 3:00 p.m. and were moved by the movie, "On Her Shoulders", which chronicles the tireless activism of Nadia Murad, who survived the genocide of her people at the hands of ISIS and went on to become a global ambassador for the continuing struggle of refugees and human trafficking victims around the world.

It is one of the most powerful stories of one woman's activism for the survival of her people. The film is available at the Ketchum Community Library and through various film streaming services. It is not to be missed.

Here are a few photos from the event:

IWF- New Mexico Forum

Our New Mexico Forum invites you and your guest to four days of art, culture and beauty in America's oldest Capital. Join us in Santa Fe during our most beautiful time of the year as we celebrate our 30th Anniversary and raise funds for our philanthropic outreach, Leadership, Empowerment, and Advancement Program for Women (LEAP).

When: October 3-6, 2019

Where: The historic La Fonda Hotel, Santa Fe

Price: $695 per person, includes dine-around, (members only) and $550, per guest

These regional IWF meetings show off a region with women leaders who have created a legacy in their communities and their state. It is a great opportunity to make new friendships and see a beautiful part of the New Mexico. Plus the Air Balloon Festival is happening at the same time. IWF - Idaho President Sarah Michael hopes that you will consider attending.

We have many more dine- arounds and special events throughout the Spring, so be on the lookout for event updates and reminders.
