

New Members for 2024

---

Dear IWFI Colleagues:

We are most privileged to introduce you to our class of 2024 new members.

We thank everyone who nominated a potential member this year. Special thanks to our Membership Committee and Chair Tricia Swartling for their review and consideration of nominations and their recommendation to our board for approval.

If you missed the New Member Orientation earlier this week, you can view the recording here.

To all our new members, we are excited that you are part of our IWF of Idaho community of extraordinary women leaders. We look forward to your engagement and participation.

Happy holidays to all!

With kind regard,

Janet L. Gallimore
President

---

Angela Michelle Chapman-McDavid

Angela Michelle Chapman-McDavid, known to most as “Angel,” relocated from her hometown of Cleveland, Ohio to Twin Falls, Idaho to be the Executive Director of Voices Against Violence, a domestic violence awareness organization. Angel previously served in nonprofit leadership with NewONESHaker and Akron Urban League. She discovered her passion for work in domestic violence, as a certified advocate at Harbor House of Central Florida, while attending law school in Orlando, Florida. Angel is a social justice advocate, deeply entrenched in the challenging work around Diversity, Equity, Inclusion & Belonging, and she is a trained Mediator. Angel has a law degree from Florida A&M University and a B.S. in Criminal Justice from North Carolina A&T State University. Angel is a published author and happily married to Kenneth McDavid. She has five adult children and a host of amazing grandchildren.

---

Sarah G. Draper

Sarah G. Draper is a retired FBI Supervisory Special Agent. Prior to the FBI, she was an officer in the U.S. Army Military Police Corps and served in Germany, South Korea, and Washington. Sarah has a B.S. in Environmental Science from the U.S. Military Academy (West Point) and an M.A. in Organizational Leadership (Global Leadership concentration) from Gonzaga University. She is a certified Positive Psychology Practitioner and Resilience Practitioner, and a Health and Well-being Coach, and certified in Business Communications. Via the University of Virginia, Sarah taught courses in leadership and wellness. Sarah is married with two teenage daughters and lives in Boise, Idaho, where she founded Leading Well Strategies to help leaders create thriving organizational cultures.

---

Jeanne Herberger

Jeanne Herberger is currently the president of Herberger Enterprises Inc. and has served on the boards of numerous civic and community organizations, including the Frank Lloyd Wright Foundation, the Phoenix Symphony Association and the Phoenix Symphony Guild, the American Orchestra League Volunteer Council, the Musical Instrument Museum and the ASU Foundation. Her honors include the Marilyn R. Seymann Award from the Arizona Foundation for Women, being named one of the “48 Most Intriguing Women” by the Arizona Historical Society, and being an ASU Founders’ Day Honoree (along with her husband, Gary). Her dedication to helping those in need led her to contribute housing, employment and education to Ukrainian women and children seeking sanctuary in the U.S. during 2022-2023. Jeanne received her Ph.D. from Arizona State University in women’s health and the medical world.

---

Johanna Kalb

Johanna Kalb is Dean of the University of Idaho College of Law. Prior to her deanship, Dean Kalb was the Associate Dean of Administration and Special Initiatives and a Professor of Law at Loyola University New Orleans School of Law. Her research and teaching interests include constitutional law, federal courts, and the law of detention and democracy. She is a co-author of Human Rights Advocacy in the United States (3d ed. 2023). Kalb served two years as a Visiting Associate Professor of Law and Director of the Arthur Liman Public Interest Program at Yale Law School. From 2013 to 2021, Dean Kalb was a fellow in the Democracy Program at the Brennan Center for Justice at NYU School of Law. She is an academic fellow of the National Civil Justice Institute. Dean Kalb is a graduate of Yale Law School and the Johns Hopkins University School of Advanced International Studies - M.A.

in International Relations with a focus on African Studies. She is admitted to practice in the States of Mississippi and New York.

---

Sandy McCullough

Sandy McCullough enjoyed a 30-year career in communications beginning in television news and culminating as a partner in a public affairs consulting firm. For the past two decades, Sandy has been sharing her expertise on boards for nonprofits that support education and the advancement of leadership opportunities for women and girls. To serve the other side of her brain, Sandy makes and sells hand-crafted jewelry. She sources materials from around the world and fosters the artistry of other women makers by producing pop-ups to jointly support their work. Whenever possible, Sandy and her husband Jack travel, golf, hike with their rescue pup Lexi, sip wine and spend time with their adult sons.

---

Joy Prudek

Joy Prudek is Public Relations Manager at St Luke’s Wood River Medical Center. Prior to St. Luke’s, she served as the Outreach & Development Director for Sun Valley Economic Development (SVED). Prior to SVED, Joy acted as community liaison for the proposed resort development at Warm Springs Ranch. Joy was also owner/operator of an art gallery/wine bar and was Director of Anne Reed Gallery. She has lived in the Sun Valley area since 1998, when she left New York City and a career on Wall Street. Joy is Co-chair of the Membership Committee for the Wood River Women’s Foundation and serves on the boards of SVED and Ice Dance International and is on the Advisory Board of Spur Foundation. Joy has a Gold Test Medal from the United States Figure Skating Association in Ice Dancing and enjoys the arts, skating, skiing, hiking and spending time with her husband Jack, and their chocolate lab, Bailey.

---

Laura Rose-Lewis

Laura Rose-Lewis is the Executive Director of the Idaho Far and Wise program (formerly “I Have A Dream” – Idaho). She brings extensive private and nonprofit sector experience to her work. After graduating from University of Oregon, Laura worked in sales for private sector firms. She earned a Master's in Public Administration from Lewis & Clark College with a focus on nonprofit management, and then founded a nonprofit consulting firm. Laura then received an Executive Coaching Certification from the Hudson Institute in Santa Barbara to focus on her work with executive leaders of nonprofits. Laura has served on the boards of Catlin Gabel School in Portland, Oregon, Cascade Aids Project, The Children's Cancer Association, Temple Beth Israel Social Action Committee, and The Advocates in Hailey, ID.

---

Cindy Suffa

Cindy grew up in southern Idaho, the youngest of three, with two older brothers. Raised on a dairy farm, strong work ethics were introduced to her at a young age. After graduating from Wendell High School, she headed off to Boise where she attended Boise State University. Cindy began her career in B2B sales in 1993 and stayed on course ever since. In 2004, she began her journey with the Idaho Business Review as an Account Executive, advancing to the roles of Advertising Director in 2014, Associate Publisher in 2016, and ultimately assuming the position of Publisher in 2018. Throughout her career, Cindy has enjoyed a fast-paced work environment and the ability to build long lasting relationships with leaders in the Idaho business community. She lives in Boise with her husband of 32 years and has one grown daughter. In Cindy's spare time, you'll find her doing the things she loves such as traveling, running, hiking, visiting wineries, or riding her cruiser on the beautiful Boise Greenbelt.

---

Sonya Wilander

Sonya Wilander is founder and executive director of Men’s Second Chance Living in Hailey ID, a men’s sober living and community reintegration. In addition to serving as Executive Director, Sonya hosts community dinners, plans fundraisers, creates recreational and community-building opportunities, and coordinates with the Drug Court, parole and probation officers, local health care providers, and others to ensure program continuity and success. From 2013 to 2020, Sonya worked in the Blaine County Felony Drug Court as the Drug Court Coordinator, and she counseled with at-risk youth in Jerome. She holds an Associate Degree in Addiction Counseling and will earn a B.S. in Counseling and Addiction Studies in December 2023.

---

Melissa Wintrow

Melissa Wintrow is the Idaho Senate Democratic Leader. This is her second term in the Senate after completing three terms in the House. She currently serves on the Health & Welfare, Judiciary & Rules and Transportation Committees. Her legislation has focused on the criminal legal system and has successfully passed legislation to seek justice for victims of sexual assault. She has more than 25 years of leadership experience in higher education in living learning communities, housing, residence life, advising, instruction, curriculum design. She also worked as a Women's Center Director and now owns SAGA Strategic Consulting, specializing in project management, team facilitation, and leadership development.

ABOUT IWF IDAHO

IWF Idaho is the Idaho chapter of the International Women's Forum, an invitation-only, membership organization. In Idaho, we are 73 members strong and globally, there are more than 8,000 diverse and accomplished women from 33 nations on six continents. IWF is dedicated to building better leadership locally and globally.

---

Copyright © 2023 International Women's Forum - Idaho. All rights reserved.

You are receiving this email because you opted in via our website.

Want to change how you receive these emails?

You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list.

---

This email was sent to <<Email Address>>

why did I get this? unsubscribe from this list update subscription preferences

International Women's Forum - Idaho · PO Box 3060 · Sun Valley, ID 83353-3060 · USA

